Q. 1. What was your experience here tonight?

We at St. Anthony's have a lot to give the whole community.
I wish I had more time to consider the weighty questions put to us.
Positive (x2), evening with friends, nice to hear other opinions
Lot of good discussion
It was good. (x3)
How strong the church community is in Berwick!
Learn(ed) what and how St. Anthony's people think.
It was positive! It was obvious that a lot of work went into this evening.
Crap.
Hopelessness, sadness.
I know this is upsetting but I felt hope for our future.
Some very interesting items discussed.
An outpouring of strong community family support.
Good discussion, very informative.
Confirmed once again what a great community we have here in Berwick.
Still no finite direction or outline of type of change.
Good conversation.
How personal these decisions are/will be.
Inspiring, learned from each other.
Great communication at the table. Good format.
Very enriching and informative.
Enlightening and informative.
Enlightening and interesting.
It was very interesting and informative.
It was thought provoking and a bit confusing as well. Overall positive.
Enjoyed these sessions but hopefully we can get a decision soon.
Enlightening, exhausting, hopeful.
Fine, interesting.
Eye opening that many of my fellow parishioners have the same concerns as me.
There are still a lot of unanswered questions and the road will not be easy.

Q. 2. Was this session worth your time?

2/2

Yes (x25)

Capital → YES

Yes, definitely.

Yes, it brought people together for the good of Christs church.

Yes, always interesting to hear others.

Yes, but we get the feeling that things have already been decided.

? (sic)

Most definitely, having an opportunity to voice my opinion.

No.

Most definitely, there was wonderful discussion & ideas.

Definitely, there are big changes coming & I want to know what they are.

Q. 3. Do you have any suggestions on how to improve this session?

Keep the noise down to a dull roar.

Well done overall.

It was good to have discussion among people at our table, and also have opportunity for individual input through sticky notes. Well done!

There is too much repetition of the same thing.

Run well.

Give it up!

Young people should be consulted also.

Give a few scenarios for us to consider.

Not so long.

Some specific possibilities as to where we are going in the future.

Very good session.

Its time to come clean and state your decision.

Send out format before the session.

I feel, gradually, we trim down to specifics.

Please, make decisions so we can move forward. (X2)

More snacks! Judy rocks!!

Keep it going.

No. (x4)

Those who are doing summaries for their tables need to talk into mic. We have many hearing-impaired people in our Parish (some who won't admit it, ha, ha).

The presentation should be presented to the youth group with Christine in the same format.

Kids are used to this type of brainstorming and I would be interested in seeing what they would come up with.

A few of the older people mentioned they found this type of format difficult and rushed as they are unfamiliar with it.
