

The Role of the Smaller Community

- Knights of Columbus (strong) - have Scholarships (x4)
- Skating party, Parish dinners, picnics & BBQ's to renew
- Breakfast program
- Parish supports Steubenville Youth
- Visits to Seniors, shut-ins, nursing homes (x2)
- Lay people bring communion
- Support families for Christmas
- Hospitality Volunteers (x2)
- St. Vincente de Paul
- Volunteers for labour
- Liturgical readers
- This is a beautiful historical Church and Community, celebrated architect. We should preserve it (x4)
- Prayer Group, Weekly Cenacle (x2)
- How we celebrate our smaller community
- Culture gets redefined
- Keep Church Open
- Hants community & St. John's Parish are already traveling ½ hour
- Benevolent Fund (x2)
- Community Deep Roots
- Take pride in the Parish
- Altar Servers (x3)
- Sharing training of altar servers
- Opportunity for social gathering/community building
- Fundraising, esp. Steubenville
- Youth group, Family Life run by active Windsor parishioners
- Children's Liturgy (x2)
- Chances for community gatherings outside of Sunday morning
- Extend hospitality to other churches occasionally
- Funeral services
- Alpha
- Host events to celebrate this property
- Dinners
- Entertainers

- Co-ordinate with pumpkin festival (hot dogs)
- Rosary after Mass
- One wrote: “Character of St. John’s that needs to be honoured and celebrated as part of a regional parish structure:
  1. welcoming atmosphere
  2. strong orthodoxy
  3. devotion to Mary
  4. hospitality
  5. benevolence and good will to the greater community
  6. many hands willing to do physical good work
  7. strengthen Knights of Columbus by combining with councils (Windsor/Kentville/Middleton)”